Preliminary

1. Name of the company

The name of the company is formation.org.au Ltd (the company).

Mission Statement

The company, directly and as the trustee of the formation.org.au trust, is committed to the promotion of education, formation and community development of people and organisations involved in the delivery of the charitable purposes of the Catholic Church by establishing a multi-sector, multi-ministry community of people and organisations that work together to ensure the profession and practice of formation flourishes for God’s mission.

Concepts

For the purposes of this Constitution:

“formation” means “an intentional, ongoing and reflective process that focuses on the growth of individuals and communities from their lived experiences, in spiritual awareness, theological understanding, vocational motivation and capabilities for God’s mission and service in the Church and the world” (reference: A framework for Formation for Mission, NCEC 2017)

“Wisdom & Strategy Circle” means “the permanent platform for dialogue and discernment for members. It serves as the place for the membership to determine priorities for strategy, funding and operations. Functionally, the co-chairs of the Wisdom & Strategy Circle are partners with the Chairperson of the Board, and the Executive Leadership of formation.org.au who work relationally to serve the membership.

“Individual Membership Charter” means the code of conduct detailing the guidelines, principles, attitudes, and rules that outline expected behaviours and ethical standards for individual members of formation.org.au which aims to promote a safe, respectful, nourishing and productive environment that reflects God’s mission.

“Organisational Membership Charter” means the code of conduct detailing the guidelines, principles, attitudes, and rules that outline expected behaviours and ethical standards for organisational members of formation.org.au which aims to promote a safe, respectful, nourishing and productive environment that reflects God’s mission.

2. Type of company

The company is a not-for-profit public company limited by guarantee which is established to be, and to continue as, a charity.

3. Liability of members limited to the guarantee

- 3.1 Each member must contribute an amount not more than $10 (the guarantee) to the property of the company if the company is wound up:
- (a) while the member is a member, or within 12 months after they stop being a member, and
 - (b) at the time of winding up, the debts and liabilities of the company, including the costs of winding up, incurred before the member stopped being a member exceed the company's assets.
- 3.2 The liability of each member is limited to the amount of the guarantee.

Charitable purposes and powers

4. Object

The company's object is to pursue the following charitable purpose(s):

- (a) to act as trustee of the formation.org.au trust; and
- (b) to engage in formation directly.

The activities of the company include advancing religion, and promoting education, formation and community development of people and organisations involved in the delivery of the charitable purposes of the Catholic Church by establishing a multi-sector, multi-ministry community of people and organisations that work together to ensure the profession and practice of formation flourishes for God's mission.

5. Powers

Subject to clause 6, the company has all the powers of a company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act which may only be used to carry out its purpose(s) set out in clause 4.

6. Not-for-profit

- 6.1 The company must not distribute any income or assets directly or indirectly to its members, except as provided in clauses 6.2 and 6.6.
- 6.2 Clause 6.1 does not stop the company from doing the following things, provided they are done in good faith:
- (a) paying a member for goods or services they have provided or expenses they have properly incurred at fair and reasonable rates or rates more favourable to the company, or
 - (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the company's charitable purpose(s).

7. Amending the constitution

- 7.1 Subject to clause 7.3, the company member(s) may amend this constitution by passing a special resolution.
- 7.2 Any amendment to this constitution will take effect from the date of the special resolution, or from any later date specified in the resolution.
- 7.3 The company member(s) must not pass a special resolution that amends this constitution if passing it would mean the company would no longer be a charity.

8.3 Organisational Membership

Organisational Membership being any Catholic, or other, organisation, agency, ministry, group, community or sector. This includes but is not limited to: Catholic parishes and (Arch)dioceses, secondary and primary schools, public and private hospitals, aged care organisations, ministerial public juridic persons, religious orders and congregations, agencies, community and youth groups, networks and other associations.

8.4 The company must establish and maintain a register of members. The register of members must be kept by the secretary and must contain:

- (a) for each current member:
 - i. name
 - ii. address
 - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - iv. date the member was entered on to the register
- (b) for each person who stopped being a member in the last 7 years:

- i. name
- ii. address
- iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
- iv. dates the membership started and ended

8.5 The company must allow members to inspect the register of members.

8.6 Information that is accessed from the register of members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of members.

9. Who can be a member

9.1 A person who supports the purposes of the company and satisfies one or other of the respective categories of membership listed in clause 8.1, 8.2 or 8.3 is eligible to apply to be a member of the company .

9.2 In this clause, 'person' means an individual or incorporated body or Organisation.

10. How to apply to become a member

A person (as defined in clause 9.2) may apply to become a member of the company by writing to the secretary stating that they:

- (a) want to become a member
- (b) support the purpose(s) of the company, and
- (c) agree to comply with the company's constitution, including paying the guarantee under clause 4 if required and the membership fees .
- (d) if seeking Individual Membership, subscribe to the Individual Membership Charter of formation.org.au and agree to act in accordance with the principles and practice of formation it contains
- (e) If seeking Organisational Membership, subscribe to the Organisational Membership Charter of formation.org.au and agree to act in accordance with the principles and practice of collaboration and formation it contains.

11. Directors decide whether to approve membership

11.1 The directors must consider an application for membership within a reasonable time after the secretary receives the application.

11.2 If the directors approve an application, the secretary must as soon as possible:

- (a) enter the new member on the register of members, and

- (b) write to the applicant to tell them that their application was approved, and the date that their membership started (see clause 12).

11.3 If the directors reject an application:

- (a) the secretary must write to the applicant as soon as possible to tell them that their application has been rejected.
- (b) the directors do not have to give reasons.

11.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may approve an application even if the application does not state the matters listed in clauses 10 (a), 10 (b) or 10 (c). In that case, by applying to be a member, the applicant agrees to those three matters.

12. When a person becomes a member

An applicant will become a member when they are entered on the register of members.

13. Membership fees

13.1 Each Individual Member and each Organisational Member shall pay to the charitable trust an annual fee, as determined by the directors.

13.2 A member that has not paid the required fee in accordance with this clause may not exercise any of the rights associated with that member's membership, including the right to exercise any vote the member may have at a meeting of members.

13.3 Individual Membership fees are payable annually and are set by the Board of Directors.

13.4 Organisational Membership fees are scaled as follows:

- i. Less than 30 employees which entitles the Member Organisation to be represented by one person who satisfies the criteria of a professional member).
- ii. Between 31 and 100 employees which entitles the Organisational Member to be represented by two persons who satisfy the criteria of a professional member or young professional member.
- iii. More than 100 employees which entitles the Organisational Member to be represented by three persons who satisfy the criteria of a professional member or young professional member.
- iv. For Organisational Members who seek to be represented by more than the provided number of persons for their respective number of employees the additional fee is equal to the number of person required x 50% of the current professional membership fee. This formula can be changed at any time by majority decision of the Board.

- v. Organisational Membership fees are payable annually and are set by the Board of Directors

14. Transfer of membership

- 14.1 Membership of the company and the associated rights cannot be transferred or sold.

15. When a person stops being a member

- 15.1 A person (as defined in clause 9.2) immediately stops being a member if they:
 - (a) die
 - (b) fails to pay any required membership fee in accordance with cl 13 within one month after the date on which that membership fee becomes due or such later time as the directors may determine
 - (c) are wound up or otherwise dissolved or deregistered (for an incorporated member)
 - (d) resign, by writing to the secretary
 - (e) have their membership terminated under clause 16.7 , or
 - (f) have not responded within three months to a written request from the secretary that they confirm in writing that they want to remain a member.

Dispute resolution and disciplinary procedures

16. Dispute resolution

- 16.1 The dispute resolution procedure in this clause applies to disputes (disagreements) under this constitution between a member or director and:
 - (a) one or more members
 - (b) one or more directors, or
 - (c) the company.
- 16.2 Those involved in the dispute must try to resolve it between themselves within 14 days of knowing about it, or within a timeframe agreed by those involved.
- 16.3 If those involved in the dispute do not resolve it under clause 16.2, they must within 10 days (or within a timeframe agreed by those involved):
 - (a) tell the directors about the dispute in writing
 - (b) agree or request that a mediator be appointed, and

- (c) attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.

16.4 The mediator must:

- (a) be chosen by agreement of those involved, or
- (b) where those involved do not agree:
 - i. for disputes between members, a person chosen by the directors, or
 - ii. for other disputes, a person chosen by the president of the law institute or society in the state or territory in which the company has its registered office.

16.5 A mediator chosen by the directors under clause 16.4(b)(i) :

- (a) may be a member or former member of the company
- (b) must not have a personal interest in the dispute, and
- (c) must not be biased towards or against anyone involved in the dispute.

16.6 When conducting the mediation, the mediator must:

- (a) allow those involved a reasonable chance to be heard
- (b) allow those involved a reasonable chance to review any written statements
- (c) ensure that the mediation is conducted in a manner free from bias, and
- (d) not make a decision on the dispute.

16.7 If a mediated resolution of a dispute with a member is unable to be reached, the Board may, by 75% approved vote and the consent of the Company Member, resolve to terminate the membership.

17. Not Used

General meetings of members

18. Calling a general meeting

18.1 The directors may call a general meeting, including an annual general meeting.

18.2 If members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting make a written request to the company for a general meeting to be held for a proper purpose, the directors must:

- (a) within 21 days of the members' request, give all members notice of a general meeting, and

- (b) hold the general meeting within 2 months of the members' request.
- 18.3 The percentage of votes that members have (in clause 17.2) is to be worked out as at midnight before the members request the meeting.
- 18.4 The members who make the request for a general meeting must:
 - (a) state in the request any resolution to be proposed at the meeting
 - (b) sign the request, and
 - (c) give the request to the company.
- 18.5 The members making the request may sign the request by signing a physical form of the document by hand or by signing an electronic form of the document using electronic means, which identifies the person and indicates the person's intention.
- 18.6 Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be signed by members if the wording of the request is the same in each copy.
- 18.7 If the directors do not call the meeting within 21 days of being requested under clause 18.2, 50% or more of the members who made the request may call and arrange to hold a general meeting.
- 18.8 To call and hold a meeting under clause 18.7 the members must:
 - (a) as far as possible, follow the procedures for general meetings set out in this constitution,
 - (b) call the meeting using the list of members on the company's member register, which the company must provide to the members making the request at no cost, and
 - (c) hold the general meeting within three months after the request was given to the company.
- 18.9 The company must pay the members who request the general meeting any reasonable expenses they incur because the directors did not call and hold the meeting.
- 19. Using technology to hold meetings
- 19.1 The company may hold a general meeting at two or more venues using any virtual meeting platform or using a virtual meeting platform only, where the platform gives members a reasonable opportunity to participate, including to hear and be heard.
- 19.2 Anyone using this platform is taken to be present in person at the meeting.
- 19.3 If the general meeting is held using a virtual meeting platform only, then

- (a) The place of the meeting is taken to be the registered office of the company, and
 - (b) The time of the meeting is taken to be the time at the registered office of the company.
- 19.4 If the general meeting is held at more than one physical venue (whether or not it is also held using a virtual meeting platform), then:
- (a) The place of the meeting is taken to be the main physical venue of the meeting as set out in the notice of the meeting, and
 - (b) The time of the meeting is taken to be the time at the main physical venue of the meeting as set out in the notice of the meeting.
- 20. Notice of general meetings
- 20.1 Notice of a general meeting must be given to:
- (a) each member entitled to vote at the meeting
 - (b) each director, and
 - (c) the auditor (if any).
- 20.2 Notice of a general meeting must be provided in writing at least 21 days before the meeting.
- 20.3 Subject to clause 19.4, notice of a general meeting may be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.
- 20.4 Notice of a general meeting cannot be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if a resolution will be moved to:
- (a) remove a director
 - (b) appoint a director in order to replace a director who was removed, or
 - (c) remove an auditor.
- 20.5 Notice of a general meeting must include:
- (a) the place, date and time for the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more places or virtually, the virtual meeting platform that will be used to facilitate this)
 - (b) a statement regarding the member's right to request documents be sent in electronic or physical form

- (c) the general nature of the meeting's business
- (d) if applicable, that a special resolution is to be proposed and the words of the proposed resolution, and
- (e) a statement that members have the right to appoint proxies and that, if a member appoints a proxy:
 - i. the proxy does not need to be a member of the company
 - ii. the proxy form must be delivered to the company at its registered address or the address (including an electronic address) specified in the notice of the meeting, and
 - iii. the proxy form must be delivered to the company at least 48 hours before the meeting.

20.6 If a general meeting is adjourned for one month or more, the members must be given new notice of the resumed meeting.

21. Quorum at general meetings

21.1 For a general meeting to be held, at least one half of each category of members (a quorum) must be present (in person, by proxy or by representative) for the whole meeting. When determining whether a quorum is present, a person may only be counted once (even if that person is a representative or proxy of more than one member).

21.2 No business may be conducted at a general meeting if a quorum is not present.

21.3 If there is no quorum present within 30 minutes after the starting time stated in the notice of general meeting, the general meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place that the chairperson specifies. If the chairperson does not specify one or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:

- (a) if the date is not specified – the same day in the next week
- (b) if the time is not specified – the same time, and
- (c) if the place is not specified – the same place.

21.4 If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the starting time set for that meeting, the meeting is cancelled.

22. Right of non-members to attend meetings

22.1 The chairperson of a general meeting may invite any person to attend and address a meeting.

22.2 Any auditor and any director of the company is entitled to attend and address a general meeting.

22.3 The company must give the auditor (if any) any communications relating to the general meeting that a member of the company is entitled to receive.

23. Chairperson for general meetings

23.1 The chairperson is the same person as the Chair of the Board and is entitled to chair general meetings.

23.2 The members present and entitled to vote at a general meeting may choose a director or member to be the chairperson for that meeting if:

- (a) there is no chairperson, or
- (b) the chairperson is not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting, or
- (c) the chairperson is present but says they do not wish to act as chairperson of the meeting.

24. Role of the chairperson

24.1 The chairperson is responsible for the conduct of the general meeting.

24.2 The chairperson must give members a reasonable opportunity to make comments and ask questions (including to the auditor (if any)).

24.3 The chairperson does not have a casting vote.

25. Adjournment of meetings

25.1 If a quorum is present, a general meeting must be adjourned if a majority of members present direct the chairperson to adjourn it.

25.2 Only unfinished business may be dealt with at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

Members' resolutions and statements

26. Members' resolutions and statements

26.1 Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on a resolution may give:

- (a) written notice to the company of a resolution they propose to move for a proper purpose at a general meeting (members' resolution), and/or

- (b) a written request to the company that the company give all of its members a statement about a proposed resolution or any other matter that may properly be considered at a general meeting (members' statement).
- 26.2 A notice of a members' resolution must set out the wording of the proposed resolution and be signed by the members proposing the resolution.
- 26.3 A request to distribute a members' statement must set out the statement to be distributed and be signed by the members making the request.
- 26.4 Separate copies of a document setting out the notice or request may be signed by members if the wording is the same in each copy.
- 26.5 The percentage of votes that members have (as described in clause 26.1) is to be worked out as at midnight before the request or notice is given to the company.
- 26.6 If the company has been given notice of a members' resolution for a proper purpose under clause 26.1(a), the resolution must be considered at the next general meeting held more than two months after the notice is given.
- 26.7 This clause does not limit any other right that a member has to propose a resolution at a general meeting.
- 27. Company must give notice of proposed resolution or distribute statement
- 27.1 If the company has been given a notice or request under clause 26:
 - (a) in time to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the company's cost, or
 - (b) too late to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, then the members who proposed the resolution or made the request must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the company in giving members notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement. However, at a general meeting, the members may pass a resolution that the company will pay these expenses.
- 27.2 The company does not need to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members if:
 - (a) it is more than 1 000 words long
 - (b) the directors consider it may be defamatory
 - (c) clause 26.1(b) applies, and the members who proposed the resolution or made the request have not paid the company enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members, or

- (d) in the case of a proposed members' resolution, the resolution does not relate to a matter that may be properly considered at a general meeting or is otherwise not a valid resolution able to be put to the members.

28. Resolutions without meetings

- 28.1 Subject to clause 28.3, the directors may put a resolution to the members to pass a resolution without a general meeting being held.
- 28.2 The directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a resolution has or will be put to members, and set out the wording of the resolution.
- 28.3 The company cannot pass resolutions for the below without holding a meeting:
 - (a) for a resolution to remove an auditor or remove a director
 - (b) for passing a special resolution, or
 - (c) where the Corporations Act or this constitution requires a meeting to be held.
- 28.4 A resolution is passed if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the resolution, in the manner set out in clause 28.5 or clause 28.6.
- 28.5 Members may sign:
 - (a) a single document setting out the resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
 - (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.
- 28.6 The company may send a resolution by email to members and members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

Voting at general meetings

29. How many votes a member has

The Company Member has one vote.

Each Professional Member, and each Young Professional Member has one vote.

An affiliate member has no vote.

Organisational Members have no vote in their own right and agree members in their cohort of Professional or Young Professional Members can exercise unfettered discretion in casting any vote.

30. Challenge to member's right to vote

- 30.1 A member or the chairperson may only challenge a person's right to vote at a general meeting at that meeting.
- 30.2 If a challenge is made under clause 30.1, the chairperson must decide whether or not the person may vote.. No member can vote unless their any annual subscription is current and they belong to a category of members with a right to vote. The chairperson's decision is final.

31. How voting is carried out

- 31.1 Voting must be conducted and decided by:
- (a) a show of hands
 - (b) a vote in writing, or
 - (c) another method chosen by the chairperson that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 31.2 Before a vote is taken, the chairperson must note whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.
- 31.3 On a show of hands, the chairperson's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
- 31.4 The chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

32. When and how a vote in writing must be held

- 32.1 A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:
- (a) at least five members present who are entitled to vote on the relevant resolution,
 - (b) members present with at least 5% of the votes that may be passed on the relevant resolution (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded), or
 - (c) The chairperson of the meeting.
- 32.2 A vote in writing must be taken when and how the chairperson directs, unless clause 32.3 applies.
- 32.3 A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 32.1:
- (a) For the election of a chairperson under clause 23.2, or

(b) To decide whether to adjourn the meeting.

32.4 A demand for a vote in writing may be withdrawn.

33. Appointment of proxy

33.1 A member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at a general meeting on their behalf.

33.2 A proxy does not need to be a member.

33.3 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member to:

- (a) speak at the meeting
- (b) vote in a vote in writing (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment), and
- (c) join in to demand a vote in writing under clause 32.1.

33.4 An appointment of proxy (proxy form) must be signed by the member appointing the proxy and must contain:

- (a) the member's name and address
- (b) the company's name
- (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy, and
- (d) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.

33.5 A proxy appointment may be standing (ongoing).

33.6 Proxy forms must be received by the company at the address stated in the notice under clause 20.5(e) or at the company's registered address at least 48 hours before a meeting.

33.7 A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting while the member is at the meeting.

33.8 Unless the company receives written notice before the start or resumption of a general meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointing member:

- (a) dies
- (b) is mentally incapacitated
- (c) revokes the proxy's appointment, or

(d) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.

33.9 A proxy appointment may specify the way the proxy must vote on a particular resolution.

34. Voting by proxy

34.1 A proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (but this does not prevent a member appointed as a proxy from voting as a member on a show of hands).

34.2 When a vote in writing is held, a proxy:

- (a) does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote
- (b) if the way they must vote is specified on the proxy form, must vote that way, and
- (c) if the proxy is also a member or holds more than one proxy, may cast the votes held in different ways.

Directors

35. Number of directors

35.1 The company must have at least three and no more than nine directors.

36. Election and appointment of directors

36.1 The initial directors are the people who have agreed to act as directors and who are appointed by the Company Member and named as proposed directors in the application for registration of the company.

36.2 For subsequent election of directors

- (a) the Professional Members and Young Professional Members may nominate from among their combined number and elect to the board up to a total of 3 qualified directors by a resolution passed in a general meeting; and
- (b) The Youth Members have no right to nominate or vote for appointments to the Board but can vote in the election of the Professional Members.

36.3 Each of the 3 member-elected directors must be elected by a separate resolution, so that once a director from a particular sector or ministry is elected, subsequent director places can only be filled by directors elected from a different sector/ministry resulting in each of the elected directors representing respectively the major sectors/ministries of mission in the Catholic Church in Australia such sector/ministries being determined from time to time by discernment of the Board after consultation with the Wisdom and Strategy Circle.

- 36.4 A person is eligible for election as a director of the company if they:
- (a) are a Professional Member of the company,
 - (b) are a Young Professional Member of the company, and have more than 2 years of formation practitioner experience,
 - (c) are 18 years of age or older
 - (d) are nominated by two other Professional Members entitled to vote (unless the person was previously elected as a director at a general meeting and has been a director since that meeting), but have not served as a director for more than 3 periods of 2 years consecutively.
 - (e) give the company their signed consent to act as a director of the company, and
 - (f) are not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act.
- 36.5 For subsequent appointment of directors a person is eligible for appointment as a director of the company if they:
- (a) are 18 years of age or older,
 - (b) have been recruited and selected on behalf of the Company Member,
 - (c) give the company their signed consent to act as a director of the company , and
 - (d) are not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act
- 36.6 Subject to cl 35.1, the directors may appoint a person as a director to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director if that person:
- (a) is a member of the company
 - (b) is 18 years of age or older
 - (c) gives the company their signed consent to act as a director of the company,
 - (d) is not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act, and
 - (e) Is endorsed by the Company Member to fill a casual vacancy
- 36.7 If the number of directors is reduced to fewer than three or is less than the number required for a quorum, the continuing directors may act but only:
- (a) in an emergency
 - (b) for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to three (or higher if required for a quorum), or

- (c) to call a general meeting.

37. Election of chairperson

The Company Member will appoint a director as the company's chairperson.

38. Term of office

- 38.1 Other than a director appointed under clause 36.6, a director's term of office starts at the end of the general meeting at which they are elected and ends at the end of the general meeting at which they retire.

39. When a director stops being a director

- 39.1 A director stops being a director if they:

- (a) give written notice of resignation as a director to the company
- (b) die
- (c) if they are an elected director, are removed as a director by a resolution of the members
- (d) are absent for [3] consecutive directors' meetings without approval from the directors, or
- (e) become ineligible to be a director of the company under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act.

Powers of directors

40. Powers of directors

- 40.1 The directors are responsible for managing and directing the activities of the company to carry out the purpose(s) set out in clause 4.
- 40.2 The directors may use all the powers of the company except for powers that, under the Corporations Act or this constitution, may only be used by members.
- 40.3 The directors must decide on the responsible financial management of the company including:
 - (a) approval of the budget provided it does not exceed the threshold notified from time to time by the Company Member.
 - (b) any suitable written delegations of power under clause 41, and
 - (c) how money will be managed, such as how electronic transfers, negotiable instruments or cheques must be authorised and signed or otherwise approved.

- 40.4 The directors cannot remove a director or auditor. Directors and auditors may only be removed by the Company Member.

40A RESERVE POWERS OF MEMBERS

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the following matters are reserved for decision by the Professional Members and the Young Professional Members, (including those who are nominated by Organisational members) to be made at a General Meeting which other than where expressly stated as requiring a special resolution, shall be passed by an ordinary resolution:

- a. Any amendment to the Constitution of the company, by special resolution and subject to the approval of the Company Member
- b. Any amendment to the objects of the company, by special resolution and subject to the approval of the Company Member
- c. Any amendment to the Wisdom and Strategy Circle by special resolution and subject to the approval of the Company Member
- d. all matters which the Act requires company members to pass by ordinary resolution at a General Meeting;
- e. all matters which the Act requires company members to pass by special resolution at a General Meeting;

40B RESERVE POWERS OF COMPANY MEMBER

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the following matters are reserved for decision by the Company Member and can be announced at a General Meeting or at any other time:

- a. appointment of the chairperson
- b. appointment of the Company Member appointed board directors.
- c. removal of the Company Member appointed board directors
- d. approval of annual budgets if they exceed the threshold notified from time to time by the Company Member.
- e. the acquisition of any business by the company
- f. the entering into a joint venture by the company with any other business,
- g. entering into a contract of sale for the purchase of real estate,
- h. entering into a lease,
- i. giving any third-party security over any asset and undertaking of the company.

41. Delegation of directors' powers

- 41.1 The directors may delegate any of their powers and functions to a committee, a director, an employee of the company (such as a chief executive officer) or any other person, as they consider appropriate.
- 41.2 The company must keep appropriate records of any delegations.

42. Payments to directors

- 42.1 The company may not pay directors' fees.
- 42.2 The company may:
- (a) pay a director for work they do for the company, other than as a director, if the amount is no more than a reasonable fee for the work done, or
 - (b) reimburse a director for expenses properly incurred by the director in connection with the affairs of the company.
- 42.3 Any payment made under clause 42.1 or 42.2 must be approved by the directors.

43. Execution of documents

- 43.1 The company may execute a document without using a common seal if the document is signed by:
- (a) two directors of the company
 - (b) a director and the secretary, or
 - (c) or some other person or combination of persons appointed by the board for that purpose,
- whether by signing a physical form of the document by hand or by signing an electronic form of the document using electronic means, which identifies the person and indicates the person's intention.

44. Validity

- 44.1 An act done by a director or by a meeting of the directors or a committee attended by a director is not invalid just because:
- (a) of a defect in the appointment of the director
 - (b) the person is disqualified from being a director or has vacated office, or
 - (c) the person is not entitled to vote,

if that circumstance was not known by the person or the directors or committee, as the case may be, when the act was done.

Duties of directors

45. Duties of directors

45.1 The directors must comply with their duties:

- (a) to exercise their powers and discharge their duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable individual would exercise if they were a director of the company
- (b) to act in good faith in the best interests of the company and to further the charitable purpose(s) of the company set out in clause 4
- (c) not to misuse their position as a director
- (d) not to misuse information they gain in their role as a director
- (e) to disclose any perceived or actual material conflicts of interest in the manner set out in clause 46
- (f) to ensure that the financial affairs of the company are managed responsibly, and
- (g) not to allow the company to operate while it is insolvent.

46. Conflicts of interest

46.1 A director must disclose the nature and extent of any actual or perceived material conflict of interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors (or that is proposed in a resolution to be passed under cl 52):

- (a) to the other directors, or
- (b) if all of the directors have the same conflict of interest, to the members at the next general meeting, or at an earlier time if reasonable to do so.

46.2 The disclosure of a conflict of interest by a director must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

46.3 Each director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors (or that is proposed in a resolution to be passed under cl 52) must not:

- (a) be present at the meeting while the matter is being discussed, or
- (b) vote on the matter,

except as provided under clauses 46.4.

46.4 A director may still be present and vote if:

- (a) their interest arises because they are a member of the company, and the other members have the same interest
- (b) their interest relates to an insurance contract that insures, or would insure, the director against liabilities that the director incurs as a director of the company (see clause 63)
- (c) their interest relates to a payment by the company under clause 62 (indemnity), or any contract relating to an indemnity that is allowed under the Corporations Act
- (d) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes an order allowing the director to vote on the matter, or
- (e) the directors who do not have a material personal interest in the matter pass a resolution that:
 - i. identifies the director, the nature and extent of the director's interest in the matter and how it relates to the affairs of the company, and
 - ii. says that those directors are satisfied that the interest should not stop the director from voting or being present.

Directors' meetings

47. When the directors meet

The directors may decide how often, where and when they meet.

48. Calling directors' meetings

- 48.1 A director may call a directors' meeting by giving reasonable notice to all of the other directors.
- 48.2 A director may give notice in writing or by any other means of communication that has previously been agreed to by all of the directors.

49. Chairperson for directors' meetings

- 49.1 The chairperson is entitled to chair directors' meetings.
- 49.2 The directors at a directors' meeting may choose a director to chair that meeting if the chairperson is:
 - (a) not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting, or

(b) present but does not want to act as chairperson of the meeting.

50. Quorum at directors' meetings

50.1 Unless the directors determine otherwise, the quorum for a directors' meeting is a majority (more than 50%) of directors.

50.2 A quorum must be present for the whole directors' meeting.

51. Using technology to hold directors' meetings

51.1 The directors may hold their meetings by using any virtual meeting platform that is agreed to by all of the directors.

51.2 The directors' agreement may be a standing (ongoing) one.

51.3 A director may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.

52. Passing directors' resolutions

A directors' resolution must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

53. Resolutions of directors without a meeting

53.1 The directors may pass a resolution without a directors' meeting being held.

53.2 A resolution is passed if all the directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign or otherwise agree to the resolution in the manner set out in clause 53.3 or clause 53.4.

53.3 Each director may sign:

- (a) a single document setting out the resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution, or
- (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording of the resolution is the same in each copy.

53.4 The company may send a resolution by email to the directors and the directors may agree to the resolution by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

53.5 The resolution is passed when the last director signs or otherwise agrees to the resolution in the manner set out in clause 53.3 or clause 53.4.

Secretary

54. Appointment and role of secretary

- 54.1 The company must have at least one secretary, who may also be a director.
- 54.2 A secretary must be appointed by the directors (after giving the company their signed consent to act as secretary of the company) and may be removed by the directors.
- 54.3 The directors must decide the terms and conditions under which the secretary is appointed, including any remuneration.
- 54.4 The secretary must ensure that the following are maintained:
 - (a) a register of the company's members, and
 - (b) the minutes and other records of general meetings (including notices of meetings), directors' meetings and resolutions.

Minutes and records

55. Minutes and records

- 55.1 The company must, within one month, make and keep the following records:
 - (a) minutes of proceedings and resolutions of general meetings
 - (b) minutes of any other resolutions of members
 - (c) a copy of a notice of each general meeting, and
 - (d) a copy of a members' statement distributed to members under clause 26.
- 55.2 The company must, within one month, make and keep the following records:
 - (a) minutes of proceedings and resolutions of directors' meetings (including meetings of any committees), and
 - (b) minutes of any other resolutions of directors.
- 55.3 To allow members to inspect the company's records:
 - (a) the company must give a member access to the records set out in clause 55.1, and
 - (b) the directors may authorise a member to inspect other records of the company, including records referred to in clause 55.2 and clause 56.1.
- 55.4 The directors must ensure that minutes of a general meeting or a directors' meeting are signed within a reasonable time after the meeting by:

- (a) the chairperson of the meeting, or
 - (b) the chairperson of the next meeting.
- 55.5 The directors must ensure that minutes of the passing of a resolution passed without a meeting (of members or directors) are signed by a director within a reasonable time after the resolution is passed.
- 56. Financial and related records
- 56.1 The company must make and keep written financial records that:
- (a) correctly record and explain its transactions and financial position and performance, and
 - (b) enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared and to be audited.
- 56.2 The company must also keep written records that correctly record its operations.
- 56.3 The company must retain its records for at least 7 years.
- 56.4 The directors must take reasonable steps to ensure that the company's records are kept safe.

Notice

57. What is notice

- 57.1 Anything written to or from the company under any clause in this constitution is written notice and is subject to clauses 58 to 60, unless specified otherwise.
- 57.2 Clauses 58 to 60 do not apply to a notice of proxy under clause 33.6.

58. Notice to the company

Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to the company, the directors or the secretary by:

- (a) delivering it to the company's registered office
- (b) posting it to the company's registered office or to another address chosen by the company for notice to be provided
- (c) sending it to an email address or other electronic address notified by the company to the members as the company's email address or other electronic address, or
- (d) sending it to the fax number notified by the company to the members as the company's fax number.

59. Notice to members

- 59.1 Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to a member:
- (a) in person
 - (b) by posting it to, or leaving it at the address of the member in the register of members or an alternative address (if any) nominated by the member for service of notices
 - (c) sending it to the email or other electronic address nominated by the member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any)
 - (d) sending it to the fax number nominated by the member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any), or
 - (e) if agreed to by the member, by notifying the member at an email or other electronic address nominated by the member, that the notice is available at a specified place or address (including an electronic address).
- 59.2 If a member elects to receive documents in physical form or electronic form, the company must take reasonable steps to send documents in a manner that complies with the election.
- 59.3 If the company does not have an address for the member, the company is not required to give notice in person.

60. When notice is taken to be given

- 60.1 A notice:
- (a) delivered in person, or left at the recipient's address: is taken to be given on the day it is delivered
 - (b) sent by post: is taken to be given on the third business day after it is posted to the address notified by the recipient and payment of postage costs
 - (c) sent by email, fax or other electronic method: is taken to be given when it is sent, unless the sender receives an automated message that the notice has not been delivered, and
 - (d) given under clause 59.1(e): is taken to be given on the business day after the notification that the notice is available is sent.
- 60.2 If the delivery or receipt of a notice is on a day which is not a business day or is after 5.00pm on a business day, it is deemed to be received at 9.00am on the following business day.

Financial matters

61. Company's financial year

The company's financial year is from 1 July to 30 June, unless the directors pass a resolution to change the financial year.

Indemnity, insurance and access

62. Indemnity

- 62.1 The company indemnifies each officer of the company out of the assets of the company, to the extent permitted by law (including the Corporations Act), against all losses and liabilities (including costs, expenses and charges) incurred by that person as an officer of the company.
- 62.2 In this clause, 'officer' means a director or secretary and includes a director or secretary after they have ceased to hold that office.
- 62.3 The indemnity is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by an officer:
- (a) even though that person is no longer an officer of the company, and
 - (b) is enforceable without that person having first to incur any expense or make any payment.

63. Insurance

To the extent permitted by law (including the Corporations Act), and if the directors consider it appropriate, the company may pay or agree to pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the company against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the company.

64. Directors' access to documents

- 64.1 A director has a right of access to the financial records of the company at all reasonable times.
- 64.2 The directors may resolve to give a director or former director access to other records, including documents provided for or available to the directors.

Winding up

65. Winding up voluntarily

- 65.1 If permitted by law, the company may be wound up voluntarily by special resolution.

66. Surplus assets not to be distributed to members

If the company is wound up, any surplus assets must not be distributed to a member or a former member of the company, unless that member or former member is a charity described in clause 67.1. Any surplus assets may be distributed to the Company Member provided it satisfies the requirements of clause 67 at the date of wind up.

67. Distribution of surplus assets

67.1 Subject to the Corporations Act and any other applicable Act, and any court order, any surplus assets that remain after the company is wound up must be distributed to one or more charities:

- (a) with charitable purpose(s) similar to, or inclusive of, the purpose(s) in clause 4, and
- (b) which also prohibit the distribution of any surplus assets to its members to at least the same extent as the company.

67.2 If the Company Member does not wish to receive surplus assets, the decision as to the charity or charities to be given the surplus assets must be made by the Company Member and in the absence of such a decision, then be made by a special resolution of Professional Members and Young Professional Members at or before the time of winding up. If the Professional Members and the Young Professional Members do not make this decision, the company may apply to the Supreme Court to make this decision.

Definitions and interpretation

68. Definitions

In this constitution:

ACNC Act means the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (Cth).

business day means a day on which banks are open for business excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays in the place where the company's registered office is located.

company means the company referred to in clause 1.

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

chairperson means a person elected by the directors to be the company's chairperson under clause 36.

formation.org.au trust means the charitable trust which is engaged in formation and of which the company is the trustee general meeting means a meeting of members.

member present means, in connection with a general meeting, a member present in person, by representative or by proxy at the meeting.

registered charity means a charity that is registered under the ACNC Act.

special resolution means a resolution:

- i. of which notice has been given under clause 20.5(d), and
- ii. that has been passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by members present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

surplus assets means any assets of the company that remain after paying all debts and other liabilities of the company, including the costs of winding up.

virtual meeting platform means any technology that allows members to participate in a meeting, including by asking questions orally and in writing, without being physically present at the meeting.

69. Reading this constitution with the Corporations Act

- 69.1 The replaceable rules set out in the Corporations Act do not apply to the company.
- 69.2 While the company is a registered charity, the ACNC Act and the Corporations Act override any clauses in this constitution which are inconsistent with those Acts, as they apply to a registered charity.
- 69.3 If the company is not a registered charity (even if it remains a charity), the Corporations Act overrides any clause in this constitution which is inconsistent with that Act.
- 69.4 A word or expression that is defined in the Corporations Act, or used in that Act and covering the same subject, has the same meaning as in this constitution.

70. Interpretation

In this constitution:

- (a) the words ‘including’, ‘for example’, or similar expressions mean that there may be more inclusions or examples than those mentioned after that expression, and
- (b) reference to an Act includes every amendment, re-enactment, or replacement of that Act and any subordinate legislation made under that Act (such as regulations).
